

POOGINOOK
P/GK

Merino and Poll

thinking and breeding for the future

The Property

- Pooginook covers 19,656ha of prime Riverina grazing country, 18km south west of Coleambally
- 350mm annual rainfall and 485ha of irrigated pastures
- Strategic rotational grazing is practiced

Benchmarking

- Leading sires have been entered in Merino sire evaluation in recent years
- 3 clients entered the Peter Westblade Memorial Merino Challenge in 2010

current newsletter available at www.pooginook.com

The Stud

- Pooginook is a leading parent stud
- 5075 stud ewes were joined to lamb in 2011
- Breeding ewes are shorn at 6 month intervals, in October and April
- 5 year average flock micron of 20.1
- April 2010 drop rams hip sample test of 18.7 micron
- 12 month old 2010 drop ram average bodyweight of 65kg
- Australian Sheep Breeding Values (ASBV's) and visual selection are used in conjunction at classing
- At the 2010 auction, 171 rams averaged $1730 with a top of $4000

Private selection for 1200 flock and selected rams available from mid September in grades from $500.

POOGINOOK ON PROPERTY SALE

175 Stud and selected Merino Rams and introducing 25
Stud and selected Poll Merino Rams for Auction
12.30pm Tuesday 27 September 2011

Catalogue available at www.pooginook.com from mid September
99 Years of Breeding/Wool Quality/Fertility and Growth/ASBV's

Four Corners Rd Jerilderie NSW 2716 pooginook@parawaypastoral.com

John Sutherland T 02 6954 6145 M 0428 953 017

Pat Brown T 02 6954 4676 M 0427 546 151

© Registered to Paraway Pastoral Company Limited ABN 14 122 572 641

